

Press Release – Monday 1st September 2008

New Appointment

Nicolas Malgrain VP Mergers & Acquisitions

Geoservices* (oilfield service company – Mud Logging, Well Intervention & Field Surveillance – turnover 2007 $ 416 million, 5,000 employees in 53 countries) appointed Nicolas Malgrain (41) as Vice President Mergers & Acquisitions. He is also a member of the Geoservices executive committee and he reports to Philippe Salle, Managing Director.

Nicolas Malgrain was formerly with Deloitte & Touche Paris as Assistant, Senior Assistant and Senior (1993-1996). He went on to become Manager of Deloitte & Touche London (1996-1998), Deputy Director of Deloitte Finance Paris (1999-2002), and Director (2002-2008).

Education: Executive MBA HEC (CPA 2005), Institut d'Etudes Politiques, Paris, Economics & Finance (1992-1993), Engineering degree, ENSEEIHT (graduated 1992).

(*) About Geoservices:

Geoservices provides a range of oil field services that help evaluate hydrocarbon reservoirs and optimize field exploration, development and production. It serves oil and gas companies worldwide through a network of bases in 53 countries, covering all the main areas where oil or gas is to be found. Its services include Mud Logging (world leader), Well Intervention and Field Surveillance.

---

Information :

Frédéric FOUGERAT, Communications Director : +33 (0) 1 481 485 16
frederic.fougerat@geoservices.com